In response to the change in the local risk level, Council approved Resolution 2020-74 at a Special meeting on December 1, 2020 extending the orders in Resolution 2020-73 and adding sections addressing a hunker down order, limits to public gatherings, and temporarily closing in person service at bars and restaurants.

BACKGROUND: The nation, state and our city are in a state of emergency and in the midst of a public health crisis. On November 6, the Governor announced a new 30-day Public Health Disaster Emergency, effective November 16 and extending to December 15, 2020. The Governor now plans to issue a new emergency declaration effective until January 15, 2021. On November 10, the City Council declared a local state of emergency through June 30, 2021, and has continued passing resolutions addressing local public health protective measures for the community.

Cases are rapidly increasing throughout the State of Alaska and beyond. There is increasing demand on hospital and ICU beds as well as the need for health care professionals. Locally we are experiencing multiple outbreaks and new community cases. We must all continue to be diligent in our efforts to keep our community healthy, and to not overwhelm the health care system.

We have demonstrated that mitigation strategies work, and understand that no one tool is enough. Hand washing, face coverings, getting the flu shot, keeping social circles small, and social distancing measures are effective strategies and things we can all do to help. These strategies are further complimented by other tools such as testing and contract tracing. The mitigation strategies outlined in local resolutions (face coverings, quarantine, and safety protocols) are other tools aimed to help us keep our community and economy healthy. As exposure to this virus increases locally, additional mitigation strategies (hunkering down, limits to gathering sizes, and closure of in person service at bars and restaurants) are also warranted and effective.

DISCUSSION: Resolution 2020-77 is set expire January 13, 2021 and will be revisited at the Council Meeting on January 12, 2021. This date coincided with the next regularly scheduled City Council meeting. This extended period includes a time of the holidays and much of the influx for A-Season. No doubt these are risky time periods for the transmitting a virus.

The question could then become what happens if the risk level is reduced before this expiration date. Since the pandemic began this has been addressed with a twostep process that includes the risk level and the community wide protective measures. Risk level is determined by the Unified Command based on cases and related information. The community wide protective measures are approved by City Council resolution. Ultimately, decisions on the content of resolutions and when those details change are policy decisions made by Council.

Options on the expiration date, and how community wide protective measures might be loosened prior to January 13, if possible, are as follows:

1. City Council could change the expiration date of Resolution 2020-77 from January 13th to December 30th and set a Special Meeting for December 29th.
2. City Council could continue with the protective measures as outlined in Resolution 2020-77 and reconsider at the January 12th meeting.
3. City Council could call a special meeting to consider loosening protective measures in response to a reduction in the local risk level.
4. City Manager could issue emergency orders loosening restrictions in response to a reduction in the local risk level.

The following protective measures from Resolution 2020-74 remain in Resolution 2020-77, with the revisions noted:

- Face Coverings - Customers and visitors of businesses and organizations must wear a covering over their nose and mouth. This section has been revised to require employees or volunteers of businesses and organizations to wear a face covering when interacting with customers or visitors.
- Hunker Down - Everyone in the City is to stay at home as much as possible. This section has not changed.

- Public Gathering Limitations - When gathering in person is necessary, individuals are to wear face coverings and maintain distance between household groups. This has been changed to limit gatherings to no more than 10 people, a reduction from 20. The limitation is based on additional research and consultation with local public health officials.

While this section may seem to conflict with the Hunker Down section, it is designed to allow businesses and organizations to continue operating. Alternatively, Council could decide to close all non-essential businesses. However, research has indicated that limiting gatherings and temporarily closing in-person services at bars and restaurants are sound and effective approaches to mitigating transmission of the virus with less negative impact to local businesses and community well-being.

- Temporary Closure to In-Person Services at Bars and Restaurants - Establishments serving food and beverages are closed to in-person service. Delivery and take out options are encouraged. This section has been modified slightly to clarify that all dine-in services is not allowed, including those for the public or private parties.

Again, research has indicated that limiting gatherings and temporarily closing in-person services at bars and restaurants are sound and effective approaches to mitigating transmission of the virus, with less negative impact to local businesses and community well-being than fully closing all non-essential businesses.

- 14 Day Traveler Self Quarantine - Individuals traveling into the City by vessel or airplane must self-quarantine, with limited exceptions. One subsection has been deleted from this section. No other changes have been made.

Given what we now know about transmission of the virus on vessels, the exception for time spent at sea to count toward the 14 day traveler quarantine has been removed. Former wording, that has now been deleted, was as follows: For individuals arriving on a vessel, time spent at sea is credited to the 14 day quarantine period. The time at sea is counted from the time of departure from the last location at which a crew member disembarked the vessel, provided that no one has boarded the vessel in that time. Vessel captains shall maintain a ship's log or equivalent record demonstrating compliance with Outbreak Health Order No. 5 and appendices, when applicable, and detailing all activities at port or contact with other vessels or personnel during the time for which they seek credit for time at sea. For vessels that have been at sea more than 14 days and no one has disembarked or boarded the vessel, no quarantine is required unless individuals are showing symptoms of COVID-19, including, but not limited to fever, chills, or respiratory symptoms. Vessels at sea for less than 14 days, where no one has disembarked or boarded the vessel, may complete their quarantine in port as long as quarantine is not broken for the remainder of the 14 days.

The 14-day traveler self-quarantine remains the gold standard and the CDC's recommendation. Local health care professionals have reviewed the latest CDC options related to quarantine periods for those that come in close contact with individuals who test positive. These options included a 10-day quarantine with no test and a 7-day quarantine with negative test approach, in combination with monitoring for symptoms for the remainder the 14-day time period. With a 10-12% post quarantine infection rate predicted with the two CDC options, local health care professionals feel that a 10-day traveler self-quarantine with a test approach would be a step down from our current 14-day no test approach, and provides more protection than the two CDC options.

- Essential Services/Critical Infrastructure Plan Submittal - Business that are required to submit plans to the State, must submit those to the City. This section has not changed.
- Protective Protocols - All business open to the public must post their basic measures to protect the public health on their doors. This section has not changed.
