BOARD/COMMISSION REPORTS: None

AWARDS/PRESENTATIONS: None

MANAGER'S REPORT Acting City Manager John Fulton gave a brief report.

1. An Emergency Towing System exercise will be held tomorrow, Wednesday, October 12. The US Coast Guard cutter Sherman and F/V Bulldog will participate, as will the Ports vessel Tidebreaker.
2. The seized vessel caught fishing in US waters remains in Beaver Inlet. Only 14 rats have been dispatched, and 12 of those rats have been frozen for analysis to determine species and the possible presence of diseases. The vessel is in need of engine repairs and clean-up, both of which are currently being undertaken. Several state, federal, and local agencies have worked on this issue.
3. The USCG provided good feedback to the Unalaska delegation that visited Washington, DC last week.

COMMUNITY INPUT/ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. The trip to Washington, DC by the Mayor, Council Members, and the City Manager was very successful. The delegation provided updates on completed projects like the Carl E. Moses boat harbor and on anticipated projects like dredging the bay. The delegation met with the FAA about the airport, and they were invited by the US Coast Guard to their headquarters for lunch and a discussion about reconsideration of the length of assignments in Unalaska and allowing families to join those assigned to duty in Unalaska.

2. KUCB's pledge drive will be held on October 21st. One highlight of the pledge period will be Everybody-Is-a-DJ week. Listeners are encouraged to identify their five top songs and send them in. An introduction to each song will be taped.
